

John Paul International College

Assessment of Learning

Student name
Teacher name:
Date:

PRE-INTERMEDIATE MIDTERM WRITING ASSESSMENT (AOL 1: LETTER)

Course	High School Preparation
Subject	Writing
Level	Pre-Intermediate (CEFR B1)
Duration	5 mins perusal time 15 mins planning 60 mins writing
Conditions	- Only planning sheet is permitted - Dictionaries or devices not permitted - Class materials, notes or texts not permitted - Handwritten in exam conditions - Practice of similar tasks completed prior to test
Length	300 – 400 words
Unit Description	Throughout this theme, we have looked at travel and tourism.
Task	One of your friends is planning to go on a holiday and is asking you for some advice. Write a letter recommending a holiday destination to your friend.

Your letter must include:

1. The place and its location
2. Distance from home country, travel time and cost
3. The best time to go
4. Three interesting places they can go to (for each of them, state the attractions and activities they can enjoy or do)
5. Reasons for recommending (weather/ cheap/ food/ interesting activities etc.)

Your letter should have an introduction, three body paragraphs and a conclusion. Remember to use topic sentences, supporting sentences and concluding sentences to structure your PEEL paragraphs. Use AFORESTIS techniques to persuade your friend.

Use the checklist to check/edit your writing before handing it in.

Achievement Standard	By the end of pre-intermediate level writing students write descriptions/comparisons of people's daily routines, appearance, personality, likes/dislikes, places and culture. Students can write a simple recount about past experiences with some details. Students are beginning to notice persuasive essay elements. Students are developing their noticing, understanding and control of word recognition, grammar, and an ability to self-regulate their writing.
Weighting	40%
Date first used	22/02/24
Endorsement Date
Author	Rachael Hope

To be read through with teacher.

What will be assessed?	Your ability to: - Make a plan using a writing template - Write a letter recommending a holiday destination to your friend
How will it be assessed?	You will be asked to: - Make a plan and write a letter - Use correct letter formatting and layout (introduction, three body paragraphs and a conclusion) - Include specific details as noted on the writing template - Use topic sentences, supporting sentences and concluding sentences to structure your PEEL paragraphs - Use AFORESTIS techniques to persuade - Use a good range of simple and compound sentences - Use a good range of linking words well - Use a variety of vocabulary and some synonyms - Check/edit your writing before handing it in
What do I need for this assessment?	You will need: - Planning page, lined paper, letter writing checklist, and a pencil/pen for writing
How will I be successful?	To Exceed the Standard, you should follow the structure and content of the Exemplar letter (WAGOLL) studied in class & address each of the learning outcomes by at least 70%. To Achieve the Standard, you need to follow the structure and content of the Exemplar letter (WAGOLL) studied in class & address each of the learning outcomes by at least 50%. You are Working Towards the Standard if your essay follows the structure and content of the Exemplar letter (WAGOLL) studied in class & addresses each of the learning outcomes by less than 50%.

Student Name: _____ Teacher Name: _____

Criteria Sheet – Learning Outcomes

Pre- Intermediate Writing Assessment (CEFR B1)

Task: Letter

Students can:	Exceeding the Standard	Achieving the Standard	Working towards the Standard
Write a range of short, simple text-types on familiar topics with satisfactory accuracy and detail
Address (is beginning to) assessment criteria appropriately
Use a good range of sentence structures (i.e. modal verbs, some compound sentences, relative clauses)
Spell and punctuate a text well
Express some basic thoughts and opinions, and can sustain very simple arguments
Express concrete thoughts very well, and (is beginning to) express some complex and abstract thoughts
Plan well with teacher guidance (i.e. use writing templates)
Self-edit (is beginning to) with teacher guidance (i.e. use error codes, checklists)
Use (is beginning to) some written mode features
Vary (is beginning to) written language according to audience and purpose with teacher guidance
Use a good range of vocabulary including a variety of simple and some complex synonyms appropriately
Link ideas in longer texts by using basic cohesive devices well, (is beginning to) use more complex conjunctions
Use good PEEL paragraphing, staging, and sequencing
Feedback can be found in JPConnect Assessment.	Final Result:

Planning

Use this writing template to plan your writing. DO NOT write in full sentences, only keywords /DOT points.

A letter to a friend about a holiday destination
Introduction (begin your letter as indicated)
• Name of place and its location • Distance from home country • Travel time and cost • The best time to go	Date: _____ Dear _____,
Body Paragraph 1 (Use PEEL structure & AFORESTIS techniques)
• The first interesting place/ attraction • Things to do • Other Interesting facts
Body Paragraph 2 (Use PEEL structure & AFORESTIS techniques)
• The second interesting place/ attraction • Things to do • Other Interesting facts

Body Paragraph 3 (Use PEEL structure & AFORESTIS techniques)
• The third interesting place/ attraction • Things to do • Other Interesting facts
Conclusion (end your letter as indicated)
Reasons for recommending (weather/cheap/food/ interesting activities etc.)	Your friend, _____

[illegible]

This image shows a single sheet of white paper with horizontal ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and run across the width of the page. There are no margins, text, or other markings on the paper.

[illegible]

[illegible]

Student Name: _____ Teacher Name: _____

Writing Checklist

Pre- Intermediate Writing Assessment (CEFR B1)

Task: Letter

Check that you have done the following:	YES	NO
I have completed the Letter Writing Planning Template
My letter has a date, a greeting, a body, a closing, and a signature
My letter is a friendly letter with advice/recommendations for a friend
I have an introduction with all the details (as per planning template)
I have body paragraph 1 (with relevant details) using PEEL paragraph structure and AFORESTIS techniques
I have body paragraph 2 (with relevant details) using PEEL paragraph structure and AFORESTIS techniques
I have body paragraph 3 (with relevant details) using PEEL paragraph structure and AFORESTIS techniques
I have a conclusion (reasons for recommending places) at the end of my letter
I have shared some of my thoughts and opinions (with short reasons)
I have used present simple verbs and modal verbs such as should, can/could, would, might etc.
I have used some relative clauses such as when, where, that/which etc.
I have used a variety of linking words such as for, and, nor, but, or, yet, so etc.
I have not started sentences with 'and' or 'but', instead I have used 'also' or 'however'
I have used a good range of vocabulary including adjectives and adverbs
I have checked my spelling and punctuation (capital letters, commas, full stops etc.)
I have not repeated words or phrases unnecessarily (i.e. I'm going to talk about...)
I am happy with my letter, and I have tried my best		